Look up!

Welcome to the 11th ASI Convention, where our theme is a call to action: "Look Up!" Inspired by Luke 21:28—"And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh."

Looking to Jesus is the answer to our problems, and the key to our strength. "Are you tempted? He will deliver. Are you weak? He will strengthen. Are you ignorant? He will enlighten. Are you wounded? He will heal" (Desire of Ages, 329). "They saw no man, save Jesus only" (Matthew 17:8). 'Jesus only'—in these words is contained the secret of the life and power that marked the history of the early church" (Acts of the Apostles, 64).

May this convention be a journey of upliftment, inspiration, and a shared commitment to fixing our eyes on Jesus, running the race with perseverance, for our redemption draws near.

PROPHECY (CHURCH, MAIN ROOM)

Do not see hope as hopelessness – Lasse Flinker

You have probably heard someone say: "We shouldn't speak about the judgement - we don't want to scare people into heaven." Or: "I do not want to study Revelation 16 as it is just about plagues and the wrath of God - where is the God of love?" Or: "Do not speak to me about the close of probation or the time without a mediator."

Maybe you think of these end-time topics with a bit of uncertainty yourself - just as I did!

The more I study these topics the more I see hope: A God that is more than able to deliver, protect and save His people! These topics are not in the Bible to create fear. I want to share this perspective of hope with you from these end-time topics so that we will not see hopelessness where there is great hope and assurance in Jesus! Let's look up!

Lasse Flinker is a passionate speaker that loves to share the message of a living God - especially in the context of prophecy. He works as a Bible worker / evangelist and is the director of the ministry "Ord til liv". Lasse is married, lives in Denmark and loves to cook and engage in outdoor activities.

PROPHECY (CHURCH, MAIN ROOM)

Israel in the time of the end – Kenneth Jørgensen

What should we think about the war between Hamas and the nation of Israel? What role does the nation of Israel play in the end time?

Who is the real Israel today, is it the Jews? The Christian Jews? Or everyone who believes in Jesus Christ? What is the Biblical teaching of the real remnant in Israel?

Kenneth Jørgensen, a theologian and church historian, dedicates his focus to Bible prophecy and the three angel's messages in Revelation 14. He passionately shares his insights as a sought-after speaker. Kenneth runs the daily online ministry, Bibelzoom (<https://www.bibelzoom.no>), where he leads open and free Zoom meetings every evening at 20:00. Participants explore together the Bible chapter by chapter, sharing in testimonies and prayers.

MINISTRY (CHURCH, DOWNSTAIRS)

Media evangelism mastery: unlocking your impact potential – Oliver Krajčovič

Have you ever wondered how much time you waste on social media? Do you want to do something more meaningful and learn how to maximise the potential of your mission field?

You don't need much to do that. When I was 15 years old, God inspired me to start a social media account, which is now the most-followed Christian Instagram account in Slovakia and the Czech Republic.

Join me to find out how God touches hundreds of thousands of souls a month. And learn effective strategies that work not only for mission-driven projects.

Oliver Krajčovič is the founder of the most-popular Christian Instagram account in Slovakia and the Czech Republic, which is followed by politicians, singers, actors, and other influential people from various backgrounds. His ministry reaches countless people daily, and it was here that he discovered the ideal way to combine his digital skills and passion for soul-winning.

APOLOGETICS (GYM, UPSTAIRS)

Revelation revealed – Fredrik Kozma

While deciphering this challenging text, discover profound insights that empower preparation for the imminent return of Jesus, fostering a deeper understanding of prophecy.

Fredrik Kozma, 29, finds joy as a self-employed Bible worker, sharing the lessons he's discovered in the Scriptures. Through those teachings, he aims to offer insights that have personally enriched his understanding of the Bible. APOLOGETICS (GYM, UPSTAIRS)

The God of the Old Testament – Jonathan Karlsson

Is the God of the Old Testament different from the God of the New Testament? Does the Bible endorse slave trade and genocide? How can we harmonize the laws of stoning with Jesus's merciful character? In this seminar we will tackle some of the difficult questions relating to the Old Testament.

Jonathan Karlsson is a pastor and evangelist from Lund, Sweden, who also currently is part of the team that runs the mission school AFCOE Europe. Jonathan has a passion for soul-winning and training laymen to do Bible work.

CHRISTIAN LIFE (MAIN BUILDING, AULA)

Leadership – Frank Fournier

To succeed in this world, the secular-minded must have and use talents, education, experience, luck, connections, and much money. But a Christian, though he needs to use his talents, feels a greater need of God's guidance, permission, and blessings. "In God is our prosperity and our life. Nothing can be done prosperously without the permission and blessing of God. He can set His hand to prosper, or He can turn His hand against us." ITT 410:2

Frank Fournier is French Canadian and was born into a Roman Catholic home. He joined the Seventh-day Adventist Church when he was 27 years old, and started working with supporting ministries in March of 1975. For five years, he served as president of Woodland Park Foundation, a supporting ministry in South River, Ontario, Canada. Next, he taught Bible for two years at Fountainview Academy in British Columbia. In 1987, he and his family moved to Zambia, Africa, where he served as director of Riverside Farm Institute for six years. In 1997, he and his wife, Janet, began working with Outpost Centers International, where Frank served for five years as executive vice-president. He was president of Eden Valley for 12 years, president of ASI-NAD for 4 years, and executive VP of OCI for a total of 11 years.

CHRISTIAN LIFE (MAIN BUILDING, AULA)

How to find your life's soulmate (and other important issues) – Daniel & Antonella Pedley

We've all heard about the pitfalls of unwise romantic relationships, but how should one balance moving forward with caution? How does one, in practice, go about finding a life partner after God's will? How about timing? We will explore the different phases of relationships, key questions before starting and during a courtship and offer real-life examples. Expect a practical workshop: you will have the opportunity to ask questions anonymously on any aspects related to relationships and marriage.

Daniel and Antonella Pedley have been happily married for 25 years and have two (almost) grown-up children and a recently adopted kitten called Luther. Over the years, they have been counselling with young people on the topic of relationships. Daniel and Antonella are part of Adverum Productions, a ministry aimed at reaching secular people with the gospel and building trust in the Bible.
